The steamer Arabic brings two hundred and eighty Chinese passengers from Hong Kong. Of one hundred and twenty-one in transit, seventy-seven are for Victoria, forty-one for Honolulu and three for Panama. Those ticketed direct for San Francisco number one hundred and fifty-nine. Twenty-six have not the certificates required by law. Sixteen have Chinese consular certificates. Ten have no certificates of any description. They were accepted as passengers on the guarantee that their return passage money would be paid if they were not landed. who have Chinese consular certificates issued by Colonel Ree will probably be allowed to come ashore on bail, while their cases are continued, until a decision comes from Washington.

Information has been received here concerning operations of the Chinese at the north which serves to illustrate in a new way the ingenuity expended in attempting to enter the country. Chinese who go from here to Victoria, or some of them, go from Victoria to Westminster, on the Frazier River. They cross the river at this point and are in the United States. A walk through the woods brings them to Whalcom. Here they are in the terrifory of the United States, but their baggage is in Victoria. How shall they get it? They go boldly to the customs authorities at Port Townsend. They are in the terrifory of the United States, but their baggage is in Victoria. How shall they get it? They go boldly to the customs authorities at Port Townsend and get a certificate which enables them to go to Victoria and return. They see were their baggage in Victoria and can come back on any coast vessel without molestation. There are customs officials at the north end of this trail from Westminster, but the officials are few. Collector Sears thinks that few Chinese take this roundabout way on account of the trouble and expense. Wiffle the City of Peking was here about a score of her Chinese passengers, who were unable to land, elected to go to Victoria. The north is the back-door route to Sun Francisco.
